

Little Digger Big Jobs

The Park Is Ready

① Colour a park for everyone

Colour the picture. Give the park sign a name.

Look closely

Can you spot a bench, a path and two trees?

Draw a bird in the sky or add more flowers.

Grown-up guide

Print single-sided at 100% on the matching paper size. Use crayons or pencils.

Read prompts aloud. Let children choose colours and talk about their ideas.

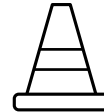

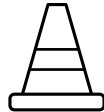

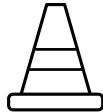

Little Digger Big Jobs

The Park Is Ready

② Count the park things

Count each row. Write the number in its box.

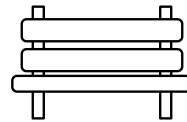

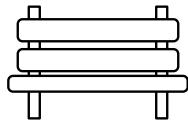

Cones

Flowers

Benches

Leaves

Which row has the most?

Circle its name. Then colour your favourite row.

Grown-up guide

Encourage one point for each object. Answers, top to bottom: 3, 5, 2, 4.

Flowers have the most. Children can say the numbers instead of writing them.

Little Digger Big Jobs

The Park Is Ready

③ Imagine the next big job

What could Little Digger help to make next?

Draw your idea. Tell someone about it.

My story

Little Digger could help to make

It would be useful because

Talk together: Who could help? How would they work as a team?

Grown-up guide

There is no single right answer. A grown-up can write the child's words.

Use after reading The Park Is Ready, or simply imagine a new park together.